The Long Road to Victory is a portrait of five brilliant, dedicated leaders in the woman suffrage movement: LUCRETIA MOTT, ELIZABETH CADY STANTON, SUSAN B. ANTHONY, ALICE PAUL, CARRIE CHAPMAN CATT.

A passionate and inspiring story, The Long Road to Victory is presented as a series of vignettes, with the woman suffrage leaders sharing their experiences and expressing their views. It is a fully-costumed production presented in historical chronological order, although the individual suffragists may move back in time as they tell their stories. What these courageous, dedicated women have to say will remind us that the social, political, educational and professional freedom and advancement of women was a decades-long battle and hard-earned victory.
